

Name: Carolynn Nguyen

Nickname: Kare (pronounced like the 'care' in 'carebear'; not 「彼」 or 'curry')

Occupation: Student, Professional Eating Machine & Variety Guru

Major: Film Studies, 2nd year

About me: I am 19 years old and I am a film studies student. I want to be a film director specializing in foreign film in the future. Next year I will transfer to another college to complete the other half of my film degree. I like to make films (especially impromptu films), studying films and researching about films. One day I hope everyone will be able to see the works I will make in the future!

I am extremely excited to go study abroad in Japan. Ever since I was in junior high, I have been interested in Japanese culture. I love to watch Japanese anime like Code Geass, Ouran Koukou Host Club, and Shakugan no Shana. I also watch Japanese dramas, and drool at Japanese food and fashion. I think both Japanese-inspired and traditional clothes are very appealing, and I cannot wait to try everything in Japan!

My occupation says a lot about my eating habits. I love to eat in the morning, afternoon, night time and I always have a midnight snack! I do not worry about getting fat at all, because I am also an avid tea drinker! I used to work at a tea shop, so my knowledge of teas is really useful as I try to drink tea that will help me not gain weight, letting me eat as much as I want! I also love animals. I have a puppy named Tofu, and he is a shitzu. He is very crazy and loves to chew my pig and dog plushies. I love him very much! I also enjoy giving advice to people, especially about makeup and computers. I also like to write blogs that contain reviews and other stuff about my life. My macbook (Phantom is its name) is my best friend.
